WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

IN REPLY REFER TO

Op-923T:ch
Ser 12111P92

My dear Mr. Dulles:

STAT

In previous classes at the Naval Intelligence School, [redacted] of your agency has delivered a series of lectures to the officer students of the regular Naval Intelligence Course, on the subjects: "Physiographic Forms", "Introduction to Aerial Photo Interpretation", and "Basic Photography". These lectures are extremely interesting and of high instructional value.

STAT

The Director of the Naval Intelligence School would appreciate your making [redacted] available again to present lectures on the aforementioned subjects to the current class of officer students between 0800 and 1400 on 31 August 1954.

STAT

If it meets with your convenience and approval, it is requested that Captain E. B. Sigmon, USMC, of the staff of the Naval Intelligence School be authorized to work out the necessary detailed arrangements with [redacted]

Fifty-seven officers will be in attendance at these lectures, all of whom have been cleared for access to classified material up to and including SECRET.

Your assistance is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

Carl F Espe
